Notice of Intention. NOTICE is hereby given that the city of Los Angeles intends making the following improvement on Figueroa street from its intersection with Pico street to and including its intersection with Adams street:

Said Figueroa street shall be graded by excavating or filling in so as to bring the centre line thereof up to the grade as established, giving the roadway a slope of one foot in thirty to the bottom of the gutter.

Sidewalks 12 feet wide shall be left on either side, which shall be excavated or filled in so as to make them correspond with the established grade. They shall then be made perfectly smooth, and all large stones or other impediments to footmen shall be removed.

The bark Fremont arrived at San Pedro yesterday. The Aileghanians leave for Santa on the tunnel at Cajon Pass is progressing rapidly. . The schooner Newton Booth and the barkentine Monitor sailed from San Pedro yesterday. Judge Thomas H. Smith goes to San Francisco by steamer to-day. Legal business, doubtless.

The Band of Hope will meet at Good Templars' Hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

There will be a special meeting of Orange Lodge, I. O. B. B., this even- stairway. Then he broke out one of the Public School Library.

Fifteen hundred feet of track had been laid on the Main Street and Agricultural Park Railroad up to the time of closing work last night.

We learn that Mr. Foster Backman, a young man well known in the city, comes down on the steamer Los Angeles as chief freight clerk. The season of white vests and linen coats has arrived and the voice of the turtle is heard in the land. Let somebody put these beautiful thoughts together and give us an essay on Spring.

The Board of Education will make a tour of the city next Wednesday to look up eligible sites for the new school houses. Meanwhile all suggestions relative to proper locations will be thankfully received.

Col. C. Tustin is now in our city. He brings encouraging news from his section of the county. The frost did but very little damage to anything in the vicinity of Tustin. Everything looks green and flourishing.

The concert given by the Los Angeles Choral Society, with festival in connection, for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church will take place about the last of this month. Great pains will be taken to make it a first- of a religious mania, although he anclass entertainment.

The Board of Education met yesterday to canvass the returns of the late school election and found the proceed-school election and found the p ings regular and satisfactory. Steps will be taken immediately to levy and collect the special tax and put the school improvements under headway.

P. C. Tonner, Francisco Palomares and others have made a contract of sale to the Los Angeles Immigration and Land Co-oporative Association for a portion of the San Jose rancho, for about $115,000, said to be the most beautiful part of Los Angeles county. The company propose cutting it up and selling it out on the plan of the Artesia Colony. This tract lays between Los Angeles and Spadra, some thirty miles from this city on the Southern Pacific Railroad. The Alleghanians drew a full house for the seventh time in our city last night and bade farewell to Los Angeles with a flourish. Well, they have given us a week of unalloyed entertainment, have put the whole place in a good humor and can conscientiously seek other fields to conquer. We must give the company our benediction on the occasion of their departure, and wish for them always the support and appreciation which they have found while in our city.

The so-called "Champion Whistler," who was found to be insane and lodged in jail a few days since, managed to break out of his cell yesterday morning and made things lively for the other occupants of the establishment. The man's name it will be remembered is McLaughlin and he is a "Five Points Arab" according to his own dictum. When first arrested, he was confined in a large cell in the upper story of the jail together with a number of other prisoners, but he made himself so disagreeable that he was removed to a single apartment below. This appartment was not considered much of a stronghold, but, as the man had not shown any fierce demonstrations, it was thought that he would remain safe enough in his new quarters. About six o'clock in the morning, Mr. Clancey, the jailor, left him whistling in his usual engaging style and went out upon the street on some errand. He returned in about thirty minutes, to find a great hubbub in and about the jail, all created by the aforesaid placid whistler. Directly upon Mr. Clancey's departure McLaughlin had worked a brick louse from the wall of his cell and with it smashed through a heavy oak door leading into an aperture under the the steps and, crawling through, made The benefit given by the Alleghanians yesterday afternoon netted $50 for the stairs, and was provided with a most dangerous and effective implement. The heavily barred window in the side of the building prevented his making an exit in that way, and he turned his attention to the cell on the inside, in which he had formerly been confined. With a blow of his sledge he severed a worught-iron staple which held the fastening of the door and forced an entrance into the cell. Very naturally, the inmates were thrown into consternation, but they had the courage to lay hold of the madman and hold him until assistance arrived. In the melee, one of the priseners received a blow on the arm from the infuriated man which nearly broke the bone. An alarm being given, the jailor was soon at hand and placed the troublesome customer in irons. We visited the jail about 11 A. M. and saw him at that time standing behind the bars of the cell with his wrists closely pinioned in the steel bracelets. He appeared to be about thirty years of age, of rather slight stature, and had no signs of extraordinary muscular development. Yet his diseased fancy had lent him the strength of a Samson as was shown by the general destruc-tion which he had made of doors, bolts and bars. He displayed a rather mild blue eye, with none of the demo-niac gleam which most madmen in his condition possess. His talk was wildly incoherent and took the form swered some questions lucidly enough -such as referred to his name, former geles, which he took refuge in as the paradise of the earth. When asked if Cox" and could beat him talking.
